

NEESPI Focus Research
Center for Land Use Studies
(LUS FRC)

Brief information

NEESPI Focus Research Center for Land Use Studies

- Venue: Natural Resource Ecology Laboratory, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado, USA
- Objectives: conduct, promote, and facilitate research aimed at integrative study of coupled human-environment interactions of land use change in Northern Eurasia
- Links to International Projects: GLP, IGBP-IHDP
- Leaders: Ojima, Hicke, Temirbekov
- Current Science foci:
 - Land use
 - Coupled Human-Environment System
 - Land use change and dust emissions
- Funded and pending proposals to NSF, NASA
- Other relevant activities:
 - ✓ The Focus Research Center will provide study institutes on vulnerability and sustainability issues for the NEESPI region